ABSTRACT

This is the seventh module of 10 in the German Headstart program. Each of the 2 units in the module contains objectives, exercises, and a self-evaluation quiz. In addition, there are several supplementary exercises and self-evaluations. The objective of this module is to enable the student to use all the services of a German post-office, such as buying stamps, mailing letters, making phone calls, and sending telegrams. (AMH)

MODULE 7

INTRODUCTION

All the action in this module takes place at the post office. At German post offices you can do a lot more than just buy stamps and mail letters. For instance, you can make phone calls at a public phone (Fernsprecher) and send telegrams. As a matter of fact, that's the only place where you can send a telegram, since telephone and telegram service are provided by the Federal Post Office, the Bundespost.

Work diligently and carefully with this module. Using a telephone can be difficult if you don't understand the instructions you will see or hear. Teaching you how to overcome this problem, is one of the main objectives of this module.

UNIT I

OBJECTIVES

When you complete this unit, you will be able to:

a. Tell an official at the post office that you want to make a long distance call to a friend in New York.

b. Follow the official's instructions on how to make a long distance call.

c. Understand and read signs in a phone booth.

d. Buy stamps at the post office.

e. Mail a letter or a package.

f. Send a telegram.

EXERCISES
